

The National Association of Broadcasters attempt to block technological advances in the satellite radio should be blocked...if people want to listen to their stations they will...if they can not provide a service that I want to listen to then I should be free to listen to what is available and what I am willing to pay for...the NAB attempt to block areas of satellite radio so that you are forced to listen to there stations is bad form...offer something I want to hear and I will.